FROM THE PRESIDENT

Well, it's finally here! For the last 18 months, 'Stowaways' has been the prodigal son of our (not-so) little community group. But the time has finally come for this concert to see the light of day, and I couldn't be more proud. After a disappointing and, at times, disheartening 2020, The FilmHarmonia Orchestra has exploded into new life with this bombastic programme. I'm incredibly proud of the players and committee members who have stuck with us for so long, and so thankful to the new players who have joined us this year. I'd especially like to thank the committees of 2020 and 2021. I hope you're all extremely proud of what FilmHarmonia accomplishes tonight because it only happened because of you guys. But most of all, thank you, dear audience member; because at the end of the day, all the hard work and dedication our players have put in would be for nought without your being here to enjoy our music.

We are still a relatively young group, but I believe we've pulled together something quite magical for this evening. So sit back and enjoy a musical voyage across sea, sky, and time; all the way through to world's end.

- ALEX WOOF

FROM THE ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

The sea has long held us fascinated and it is that fascination we celebrate today. It has driven people to sail on it, dive beneath it, and most importantly for us, write music about it. And of these people, the most famous and fun are unquestionably pirates. We will find many of them scattered through today's voyage. You will be acquainted with many already: Captains Hook, Blackbeard and Sparrow almost certainly. Edward Kenway the assassin might be less familiar but no less formidable. And then we have other seafarers like Christopher Columbus and Jaina Proudmoore as well as some young'uns who just get caught up in adventure: Kiki, Jim, Jack, Rose and a flying boy named Pan...

So, climb aboard and grab a rope as we traverse the seas from Neverland to World's End. After all, Sparrow put it best: "Wherever we want to go, we'll go. That's what a ship is, you know. It's not just a keel and a hull and a deck and sails, that's what a ship needs but what a ship is... is freedom."

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The FilmHarmonia Orchestra would like to thank The City of Sydney for their generous grant, enabling us to hold this performance today.

We would also like to acknowledge The Australian National Maritime Museum for the use of this amazing venue.

Thank you to Eli Gallagher for his time and talent as our swashbuckling pirate captain!

Thank you to Steve and Tim for the percussion hire and to Mark for leading string sectionals.

We are grateful to Aimé Langeveldt for the fantastic original artwork and we would also like to acknowledge all our members and the general public who have supported us with their kind donations.

Last but not least, thank YOU, the audience, for your ongoing enthusiasm and support. Without an audience to perform to, there would be no concerts.

ABOUT THE ORCHESTRA

The FilmHarmonia Orchestra was established in 2018 as a Not-for-Profit organisation with the sole purpose of performing works of incidental music from a range of media platforms, including but not limited to, film and game soundtracks. The Orchestra aims to raise awareness of this genre, promote cross-cultural traditions in music from the media and foster a greater understanding of this musical genre, by providing a platform for the artistic pursuit of such music among members of the Greater Sydney Region Community. Finally, the Orchestra seeks to provide quality performances of music that would normally be unavailable to the community, appropriate for all ages and presented in an environment suitable for family enjoyment. We are a registered charity and rely heavily on ticket sales and the continued support of our audience to continue our mission and we thank you for allowing us to do so.
